

Rotary Club of Simi Sunrise Taps Many Mansions for Support

Thousand Oaks, CA - November 13, 2007 - Each summer the Rotary Club of Simi Sunrise hosts the highly-anticipated Annual Cajun Creole Music Festival in Simi Valley, which raises thousands of dollars to support local charities in Ventura County. Many Mansions was recently awarded a $1,000 sponsorship for its upcoming Bowls of Hope Project to take place at The Vineyards in Simi Valley on Sunday, April 6, 2008. The Bowls of Hope Project is an awareness raising event designed to inform the community about the homeless and need for affordable housing and about Many Mansions' services and programs. The proceeds from the Bowls of Hope support Many Mansions' adult and children services for its resident families.

Many Mansions greatly appreciates the support of the Rotary Club of Simi Sunrise and looks forward to the spring event in Simi Valley!

About Many Mansions

Many Mansions, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, is one of the leading providers of affordable housing in Ventura County, offering low-income households well-managed housing and life enriching services. Many Mansions manages nine apartment communities and provides housing for more than 1300 residents. Through the development of the Adult Services and Children Services Programs, Many Mansions has made a commitment to eradicate the cycle of chronic homelessness.
