

Many Mansions Receives Grants from the Union Bank of California Foundation and the Women's Legacy Fund!

Thousand Oaks, CA- November 5, 2007 - Many Mansions is pleased to count the Union Bank of California Foundation and the Women's Legacy Fund among its friends and supporters this year! The Union Bank of California Foundation proactively invests in the community by supporting nonprofit organizations dedicated to providing affordable housing and other services to low-to-moderate income populations. A continuing supporter of Many Mansions, the Union Bank of California Foundation has kindly awarded a $10,000 grant this year to support the development and maintenance of Many Mansions' affordable housing communities!

With the assistance of our friends and supporters, we are excited to be entering a phase of growth in the life of our organization! The generosity of the Union Bank of California Foundation will assist Many Mansions to continue to provide our current affordable housing and life-enriching service programs, to plan for our recently acquired properties in Thousand Oaks and to assist us as we research additional opportunities for future development of affordable and supportive housing!

A long-time supporter of Many Mansions' Stoll House Program, the Women's Legacy Fund generously awarded a grant in the amount of $10,000 to Stoll House residents who have been victims of physical, sexual or domestic violence.

Dedicated to making a difference for women and girls in Ventura County, the Women's Legacy Fund has been supporting local nonprofit organizations that directly impact the lives of women and girls since 1995. This year, the Women's Legacy Fund will support the educational and job development opportunities, case management, childcare and transportation assistance offered to women residing at Stoll House who meet the grant criteria.

About Many Mansions
