

Many Mansions Wins Award for Participation in National Night Out '07

September '07-

National Night Out, a community event hosted by the City of Thousand Oaks, is designed to provide a forum for public servants, local law enforcement, and city officials to interact with members of the community. This year, Many Mansions participated by inviting T.O. public servants to visit its properties and interact with its resident families. Together they enjoyed great food, face painting, and games. Many Mansions was honored with an award for having the most children present at the event. Many Mansions would like to offer special thanks to Panera Bread, Peet's Coffee & Tea, and Arby's for their donations and support, which helped make the event a success!
