

Join us for Many Mansions' annual Bowls of Hope Project!

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 2009 - 11:00 A.M. TO 2:00 P.M.

THE VINEYARDS - 2525 STOW STREET - SIMI VALLEY

Your participation increases awareness about homelessness in our community, the need for affordable housing, and the services and programs Many Mansions provides.

Hundreds of beautiful ceramic bowls have been created by local supporters for guests to keep as a memento of the event. Upon selecting a bowl, guests will proceed through a 'soup line' of gourmet soups and breads donated by generous restaurants and bakeries, and served by community leaders, local dignitaries, and event sponsors.

THE BOWLS OF HOPE PROJECT

GUESTS AT THE BOWLS OF HOPE PROJECT ARE INVITED TO:

- Experience remarkable live music by Curt Brock and David Storrs
- Browse an art gallery of impressive pieces contributed by local students of all ages
- Bid on unique packages in an extensive silent auction
- Participate in a raffle
- Savor a delicious meal of soup and bread
- Enjoy Golden Spoon Frozen Yogurt for dessert
- Mingle with fellow community members
- Explore the arts and crafts zone with your kids!

ADMISSION TICKETS

Pre-sale: $25.00 each
 At the door: $30.00 each
 Online: $30.00 each
 Age 5 & Under: FREE

We hope you'll join us for this one-of-a-kind family-friendly event!

Together, we represent hope for the homeless, stability for families, and strength in our community. All proceeds directly benefit the homeless and low-income residents of Many Mansions.

For more information and tickets, contact Kelli Lighthizer at 805.496.4948 x236 or Kelli@manymansions.org.

Or visit www.manymansions.org and click "Donate Now" to purchase tickets online.

Rotary Club of Thousand Oaks

